

What does PBS do
for your child?

BELLVIEW BOBCATS:

-  Are safe and happy
-  Have school spirit
-  Thrive in a supportive learning environment
-  Experience acceptance, support and inclusion
-  Learn positive lifeskills that last a lifetime

“We Value Your Support!”

*Bellview Elementary School
Ashland, Oregon*

For more information on PBS log on to:
www.pbis.org

Positive
Behavior
Support

BOBCATS

Bellview Elementary
1070 Tolman Creek Road
Ashland, Oregon 97520
(541) 482-1310

What is PBS?

PBS is a school-wide system for supporting positive behavior for all Bellview Students.

The Three School Rules:

- 1 Be SAFE
- 2 Be RESPECTFUL
- 3 Be RESPONSIBLE

How are students recognized for managing their behavior?

-  Lifeskills assemblies with individual student recognition.
-  “Good News” postcards sent by mail, acknowledging positive behavior.
-  Regular encouragement by all staff members.
-  Classroom teachers provide personalized recognition for all students.
-  All staff hand out “Bobcat Buttons.”

Good News Postcards

How do students learn these expectations?

Twice a year students participate in “Expectation Stations.” They learn Bellview’s expectations for the playground, in the cafeteria, bathrooms, hallways, etc.

New students receive a “First Day Kit” filled with spirit items, a student handbook and more!

Teachers provide weekly lessons that teach Bellview’s expectations.

What is PBS?

PBS is a school-wide system for supporting positive behavior for all Bellview Students.

The Three School Rules:

- 1 Be SAFE
- 2 Be RESPECTFUL
- 3 Be RESPONSIBLE

How are students recognized for managing their behavior?

-  Lifeskills assemblies with individual student recognition.
-  “Good News” postcards sent by mail, acknowledging positive behavior.
-  Regular encouragement by all staff members.
-  Classroom teachers provide personalized recognition for all students.
-  All staff hand out “Bobcat Buttons.”

Good News Postcards

How do students learn these expectations?

Twice a year students participate in “Expectation Stations.” They learn Bellview’s expectations for the playground, in the cafeteria, bathrooms, hallways, etc.

New students receive a “First Day Kit” filled with spirit items, a student handbook and more!

Teachers provide weekly lessons that teach Bellview’s expectations.